

DAVE JONES | IOWA

■ Well, I got it done last night with my crossbow. I saw 13 does before this buck stepped out into the Whitetail Institute clover field. Forty-five minutes later, he worked to 25 yards and gave me a broadside shot. Thanks again, Rod McKelvey, for letting me hunt on your property and the friendship that has become of it. Lots of good times. Also, thanks to his son, Jack McKelvey, and my son-in-law, Travis Muller, for dragging this thing out for me. If they didn't come, Rod and I would still be dragging it. The deer love that clover. The night before, I had 15 does in the field.
